**All meeting registrations will include a FREE two week subscription to the 2016 Online Official Publication and the AAFCO Feed BIN. The two week trial will begin the week before the conference and the week of the conference. The online version is a secured read only document which cannot be downloaded or printed. The online OP is updated after each membership meeting and has easy to use search capabilities. Cost is $70 for members and is $125 for non-members for the 2016 OP. You will receive a user name and password by email that you can use on all your devices, laptop, tablet, smart phone, etc. Please do not share usernames with others. Your username will allow access to the AAFCO Feed Basic Information Network (BIN) for 365 days from the date of purchase. The Feed BIN Library contains the AAFCO OP and other reference documents. The BIN also has news, calendar events, committee information, team communications and more!

No thanks, I don't want the free trial OP online access.

If you wish to purchase the 2016 Online Official Publication after (or before) the free two week trial you can purchase it on AAFCO's website at <http://www.aafco.org/Publications>
