

2016 AAFCO Medicated Feed Labeling Workshop

8 am–2 pm, July 31, 2016

Marriott City Center, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Workshop Objectives

- 1) Provide a basic understanding on how to generate and read a medicated feed label.
- 2) Understand the regulatory framework for labeling medicated feeds.

Welcome and Introductions

Dave Edwards, Director, Division of Animal Feeds, CVM

All speakers' biographies are in the handouts and on the thumb drive.

An Introduction to Medicated Feed Labeling:

- Type A medicated articles
- Type B and Type C medicated feeds
- ADAA combinations
- Other Types of medicated feeds

Feed-Through Pesticides, the Basics,
Sources for Label Content

Morning Break—approximately 10:00 am

- Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) themes
- FDA Medicated Feed Mill Licenses
- Medicated Feed Calculators
- Other Perspectives on Medicated Feed Labeling (various speakers)

11:45–12:10 Lunch (Provided)

- Veterinary Feed Directives
- Q&A Panel Discussion with Speakers
- Conclusions and Adjourn 2:00 pm

First-time AAFCO meeting attendees are invited to a reception this evening at the hotel.

AAFCO

Association of American Feed Control Officials