

Keynote Speaker, Randall Stuewe:
Sustainability: Our purpose is to repurpose

2020 AAFCO Midyear Meeting
Hyatt Regency
Albuquerque, New Mexico
Wednesday, January 22, 2020
1:30–2:00 pm
Grand Pavilion 1-5 Ballroom

To view meeting via WebEx register here:

https://zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_jJtpJvTwQLiNtlHgCMOK4Q

Questions and live polling through Slido: Go to www.slido.com and type in event code #AAFCOM20 Bio: Randall C. Stuewe has served as Darling Ingredient Inc.’s (NYSE: DAR), Chairman and Chief Executive Officer since February 2003. He has been instrumental in re-branding, re-inventing, and repositioning Darling Ingredients into being the global leader in the production of sustainable natural ingredients from slaughtered animal by-products for food, feed, and fuel for the world’s growing population. Headquartered in Dallas with over 215 locations on 5 continents and 10,000 employees has built Darling from a regional US based company into the recognized global leader in animal and natural based ingredients.

Prior to joining Darling, Mr. Stuewe worked for ConAgra Foods, Inc. from 1996 to 2002, holding a series of senior executive positions. He was initially hired to do business development as executive vice president soybean processing and most recently served as president of Gilroy Foods. While operating Gilroy Foods, Mr. Stuewe built it into the largest vegetable dehydration business in the world.

Prior to serving at ConAgra Foods, Mr. Stuewe spent 12 years in various management roles within Cargill Inc.'s food processing businesses; most notably corn wet milling and vegetable oil refining and trading.

Mr. Stuewe graduated from Kansas State University in Manhattan, Kansas with a degree in Finance. He was recognized as the Outstanding Financial Executive of the Year in 2007 and was elected into Kansas State Business School Hall of Fame in 2012. Mr. Stuewe has also been recognized by Ernst and Young in 2011 as one of their Entrepreneurs of the Year.