PURPOSE

The purpose of the Association of American Feed Control Officials (AAFCO) shall be to establish and maintain an Association through which officials of any state, province, dominion, district, territory, republic, commonwealth, federal or other governmental agency, and employees thereof charged with a responsibility in enforcing the laws regulating the production, labeling, distribution, or sale of animal feeds or livestock remedies may unite to explore the problems encountered in administering such laws, to develop just and equitable standards, definitions and policies to be followed in enforcing such laws, to promote uniformity in such laws, regulations and enforcement policies, and to consult as appropriate with stakeholder organizations in order to promote the safe and effective use of such products.

The Association promotes new ideas and innovative procedures and urges their adoption by member agencies, for uniformity. The Association provides a forum for people with common interests to express their opinions, a platform for deliberation and ultimately establishing policy. When making decisions, AAFCO acts as a deliberate body, formulating policy through a series of discussions and votes. The AAFCO forum allows for input from any interested party.

This procedures manual is intended to provide guidance members in the conduct of Association business. The information herein is derived from the Official Publication (OP)(described below).

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION

Individual members can look to AAFCO for guidance when establishing their jurisdictional laws and regulations. Standards of reference are also established whereby members and others can cite an official source. Since AAFCO plays such a large role in developing regulatory guidance, it is the duty of the organization to compile and disseminate this information. This is best handled through distribution of the OP, which in many jurisdictions is truly official because of direct reference in a law.

AAFCO officially adopted rules will appear in the OP. New rules become fixed and therefore may be adopted by members upon acceptance by the Association members, unless otherwise indicated. All rules appearing in the AAFCO OP are enforceable as dictated by a member's regulatory practice and member rule-adoption laws.

The OP is an important reference available to member feed control officials, regulated industry, and other interested and concerned persons. The publication includes a list of names and addresses of member feed regulatory officials, advisors and affiliates. It details the Association's By-Laws, policies, procedural guidelines and strategic plan. It also contains Model Bills and Regulations, model guidance documents, feed terms, ingredient definitions and meeting proceedings.

The OP is printed annually under the direction of the AAFCO editor and made available to the membership and other interested parties, no later than January 1 of each year. Updates to the printed OP must be provided to the OP editor no later than October 1, including:

1. Membership approved changes from the BOD reflective of Association approved actions;
2. Membership approved changes from section editors; and,
3. Updated committee member and advisor contact information.

The editor should provide the publication to the printer no later than November 15.

The online version of the OP will be updated after each membership vote. The Association Management Firm (AMF) together with the section editor will be responsible for ensuring accuracy of revisions within 10 business days of membership vote.

Prior to requesting revisions to or removal of an item from the OP, the proposed changes to the OP must have been discussed at an open meeting of the Committee responsible for the section of the OP being revised. The proposed revisions will be subject to a Committee vote and after approval will be submitted to the BOD as a Committee Recommendation. The Committee Recommendation will be discussed as an agenda item at the next available BOD meeting. If accepted by the BOD, the Committee's Recommendation to edit or, remove an item from the OP, along with the BOD's recommendation, will be put to a vote by the general membership. For modifications originating from the BOD, the recommendations will be posted on the AAFCO website for a minimum of 60 days prior to a being put to a vote by the general membership. An acceptance of any action as a result of the vote will be noted in the next publication of the OP. Editorial or minor changes that do not change the content or meaning are not required to be posted or put to a vote.

A consolidation of changes in the last year will be listed in the front of the OP.

ORGANIZATION

(Reference: By-Laws in the Official Publication)

Membership

Each state, province, dominion, district, territory, republic, commonwealth or federal agency shall pay dues annually to be eligible to vote.

Active Members

The following categories of persons are eligible for active membership in the Association:

1. The officers charged by law with execution of the state, province, dominion, district, territory, republic, commonwealth, and federal laws regulating the production, labeling, distribution, and sale of animal feeds and livestock remedies.
2. The heads or chiefs of experiment stations, departments of agriculture, bureaus, divisions, sections, and laboratories and employees thereof charged by law with the examination of animal feeds and livestock remedies.
3. Research workers employed by state, province, dominion, district, territory, republic, commonwealth or federal agencies who are engaged in the investigation of animal feeds, livestock remedies or their component parts.

Voting

Members of AAFCO are allowed an equal voice in the decision making process because any member from any jurisdictional delegation is allowed to be heard. Larger delegations, however, cannot overwhelm smaller delegations because of the one vote per jurisdiction rule.

Each state, province, dominion, territory, republic, commonwealth, and federal agency engaged in regulating or investigating animal feed or livestock remedies and paying annual dues as described in the AAFCO By-Laws, shall designate one member as a voting representative of that State or Agency. That representative, or designated proxy, shall be entitled to vote for the election of officers and directors and such other matters relating to the management of the Association as are submitted to the membership for vote.

At any meeting of members, a member entitled to vote may vote by proxy executed in writing by the member, or by that member's duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months after the date of its execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy.

Voting by Proxy

If duration is not specified, the proxy will only be good for one meeting. This must be done prior to the General session business meeting. The president will announce at the meeting if there are any member agencies who have given their voting rights by proxy to another member agency. This will be recorded in minutes.

Guidelines for Electronic Voting

This guideline is to be used by AAFCO members for the purpose of conducting normal BOD, workgroup, taskforce, committee, or other assigned AAFCO group business by electronic vote using the internet or e-mail outside of scheduled in-person meetings. These procedures are not intended to be used for electronic voting of the entire membership. All circumstances requiring the use of an electronic vote outside of these guidelines must be approved by the BOD. Voting activities not conducted in accordance with these guidelines may be subject to review and determined to be null and void by the BOD.

For the BOD, only the President or President-Elect may preside over an electronic vote; for committees and all other groups, only the Chair or Co-Chairs/Vice-Chairs may preside over an electronic vote. In the following guidelines, the presiding person will be called the Chair.

All voting members and advisors must be included in any proceedings involving an electronic vote.

Any voting member of the BOD/Committee/Group may propose a motion by email.

Any voting member may second the proposed motion, except the person making the motion.

- No discussion shall occur before the motion has been seconded and the Chair has initiated a discussion period.
- If within the next two business days, another voting member has not seconded the motion, then the member who has made the motion shall contact the Chair to determine any future action.

The Chair will assign a member to record the dates and the names of those members who moved and seconded a motion, and keep minutes of the proceedings throughout the e-vote period.

Once the motion has been seconded:

- Within two business days of the “second” of the motion, the Chair will initiate a discussion period of duration commensurate with the complexity of the motion. During the discussion period, no e-voting shall occur. Any e-vote submitted before the Chair calls for an e-vote will be considered as null and will not be counted.
- In the case of Committee items, the Chair shall extend the motion and the opportunity for discussion simultaneously to the industry advisors.

It is expected that committee advisors will be notified by the Chair of any electronic voting by the members and have opportunity for input.

All discussion comments shall be submitted by e-mail to all persons involved. Once the discussion period has ended:

- The Chair shall resubmit the motion (including amendments, if any) in writing within an e-mail to all voting members.
- The Chair will call for an e-vote within a specific reasonable deadline, not to exceed seven business days.

The e-vote shall remain open for a period of time commensurate to the number and availability of the members, not to be less than one-half of one business day and not more than seven business days. For e-votes lasting four days or more, the Chair will send a reminder of the e-vote to all members two business days before the deadline. If at any time during the open e-vote period a majority vote is reached, the e-vote can be concluded and the results announced by the Chair.

Any member that will not be available during the discussion or e-voting periods may give proxy to another member and notify all others of such proxy. When a member e-votes by proxy, he/she shall so indicate that on the e-vote ballot.

The Chair will notify all members of the results of the motion and the e-vote.

- A motion passes if half of the voting members plus one approve the motion. The Chair does not vote, except if there is a tie or to cause a tie. All members are encouraged to respond with one of three options: Aye, Nay, and Abstain.

The voting will stop at the end of the e-voting period. Any e-vote submitted after that time will not be counted.

The Chair shall determine the course of action if the motion fails.

Records of e-votes will be compiled by the Chair and listed in the minutes of the next regularly scheduled meeting.

All motions will be sent to the BOD with voting results to be considered as an Action Item, except in the case of the passing of minutes. In the case of minutes, list all recommendations to be considered by the BOD and brought before the Association members for vote.

- All minutes passed and approved can be posted to the AAFCO website. Minutes passed electronically will not be available for corrections or additions at any other time or meeting. All voting is final.

The Chair will send to the BOD a record of the dates of all actions, the names of those members who moved and seconded a motion, minutes of the proceedings throughout the e-vote period, all members participating and voting, and the results of the vote.

Ethics

The following policy is applicable to all AAFCO members when acting on behalf of the Association. Committee chairs, members and investigators should not accept gifts, meals, beverages, trips, tickets for events, etc. from any individual, company or association when representing or acting on behalf of the Association. The policy also applies to the BOD and employees of the Association. This policy does not apply to incidental beverages or meals at industry functions/meetings where AAFCO members are requested participants or speakers. This policy does not apply to industry functions/meetings or receptions when the individual is representing his/her own organization. Participation in those situations should be conducted under the criteria and standards established by that member's organization. AAFCO members may contact the AAFCO BOD if they have questions regarding the application of this policy.

Conflict of Interest

The members of the BOD and all AAFCO members/volunteers have an obligation to conduct business within guideline that prohibit actual or potential conflicts of interest. AAFCO BOD members, employees, Committee Chairs, and AAFCO Investigators will sign the AAFCO Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statement annually that affirms such person:

- i. Has received a copy of the conflict of interest policy;
- ii. Has read and understands the policy; and
- iii. Has agreed to comply with the policy

The Conflict of Interest provisions should be set out in contracts as appropriate and subject to Board review.

General Operating Procedures

- The President will ask BOD members, committee chairs and investigators to complete the Conflict of Interest form (copy located in FeedBin) annually, or at the time of assuming the role if it occurs during the business year.
- The Executive Director will remind the President to issue the request (including an attachment with the form) each November 1st.
- Remittance of signed forms will be requested by December 15th.
- The Executive Committee will review completed forms. The Executive Committee will forward those with outside activities to the entire board for review.
- Signed forms will be filed as official documents with the AMF.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors (BOD) consists of nine positions: President, President-Elect, Secretary-Treasurer and Immediate past-President, representing the Executive, as well as five (5) Directors.

The BOD Executive Committee is composed of the President, President-Elect, Secretary/Treasurer and Immediate Past President. The Executive Director will participate as a non-voting member. The Executive Committee will act on behalf of the BOD for time critical decisions, or for items that do not need the attention of the full Board. All decisions will be reported to the BOD at the next meeting and recorded in the minutes.

Members of the BOD are elected at the Annual Meeting and serve for the year beginning January 1 of the next calendar year, ending December 31. The President and President-Elect are nominated following advancement through the Directors' terms. In general, the Directors advance to the officer position of President-Elect and the following year, to President, in order of tenure. Directors should have served on the BOD for a minimum of two (2) full calendar years (not necessarily consecutively) before becoming President-Elect. The Secretary-Treasurer position is also elected, but generally remains with the individual elected for consecutive years in order to provide continuity and stability to the Association.

All BOD members are expected to be present at all BOD meetings to conduct the business of the Association. The AAFCO BOD typically has four in-person meetings per year. BOD meetings are usually scheduled at, but not limited to, the following Association activities:

- Midyear Meeting (usually pre and post meeting)
- Feed Administrators Seminar
- Annual Meeting (usually pre and post meeting)
- AAFCO/Food and Drug Administration (FDA) Briefing and Planning Meeting

Additionally the BOD regularly convenes by conference call, generally monthly.

General Operating Procedures

- Special meetings of the BOD by or at the request of the President or any two directors can also be held. Notice of any special meeting shall be sent to each director at least two days before the meeting.
- Establish such committees, investigators or task force groups as are necessary for the management of Association affairs, and for the study and development of standards, uniform model legislation, regulatory principles, definition or other disciplines concerning animal feeds and livestock remedies. The BOD shall provide for terms of appointment, continuance and dissolution to its established bodies.

- Consider any proposed new or amendments to legislation, regulatory principles, definitions, referred through approved committee reports. Review and present all such proposals together with BOD recommendations to members of the Association for action. This includes but is not limited to any proposed new definitions or changes (except editorial changes), new legislation, regulatory principles, or amendments that have been recommended.
- Fill vacancies on the BOD, to fill the unexpired term of the predecessor in office.
- Hold responsibility for contracts and funds as detailed in the By-Laws.
- Delegate the management of the day-to-day operations of the Association to a management company, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer or other person, provided that the company or person carries out the management duties as described in the job description and all Association business and powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the BOD.

The BOD has the authority to appoint members as liaisons to AAFCO committees and external associations (e.g., NASDA, AFDO). The purpose of these liaisons is to represent the BOD and serve as a conduit for communication and representation between the two groups. Board members will be appointed as liaisons to specific committees, whereas the BOD may appoint any AAFCO member to serve as a liaison with an external association. Expectations for these liaisons (in either role) are detailed below:

- BOD liaison to an AAFCO Committee
 - Communicate directives from the BOD to the committee.
 - Serve as special representative of the BOD.
 - Assist the BOD in keeping track of committee issues.
 - Speak to AAFCO policy issues.

 - Ensure the Board understands the other organization.
 - Represents AAFCO and AAFCO mission to that organization.
 - Monitor the business and activities of the external organization and provide regular reports and updates to the BOD on any items of note.

President

The President is the principal executive officer of the Association and presides at all meetings of the members and the BOD. As an agent of the BOD, the President supervises and controls all of the business and affairs of the Association. The person in this position normally does not serve as a committee or task force chair.

General Operating Procedures

- Meet with the new BOD to plan the year's activities.
- Represent the Association at other related agriculture/industry organization meetings when invited to participate on their programs. Coordinate and maintain dialogue with external committee advisors in lieu of presidential attendance.

- Evaluate and approve or deny AAFCO member requests for travel on official Association business using Association funds.
- Together with the BOD, appoint or replace committee chairs, members, investigators and advisors and fill vacancies as they occur.

President-Elect

The President-Elect must be knowledgeable on key issues of the association. The role of the President-Elect is both supportive and strategic. The President-Elect performs the duties of the President in the absence of the President or in the event of the President's inability or refusal to act. When so acting, the President-Elect shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

The President-Elect serves as a member of the BOD and performs such other duties as may be assigned by the President or BOD. The person in this position normally does not serve as a committee or task force chair.

General Operating Procedures

- Serve as the committee coordinator. The President-Elect is responsible for ensuring each committee report is complete and accurate. The Committee Coordinator should assist the committee chair to identify any conflicts before the BOD meetings. When clarity on a report is needed, the President-Elect informs the committee chair of the problem and requests clarification before the information is presented to the BOD. If conflicts cannot be resolved prior to the BOD meeting, the committee chair is requested to attend the BOD meeting where discrepancies will be pointed out for discussion and resolution. The President-Elect must be well enough acquainted with the background of proposed changes, and other matters, to facilitate questions and answers with the committee chair. (e.g., reason for and need of change, problems presently being encountered, how change will help, what has happened in the past, where the committee recommendation may be in error, etc.). This is extremely important to avoid the necessity of postponing action until the next meeting because of confusion and to expedite BOD meetings. Other duties of Committee Coordinator:

1. Coordinate with Executive Director, Executive Assistant and Committee Liaisons to advise Committee Chairs on meeting the AAFCO timelines for their meeting agendas, meeting minutes and other responsibilities.
 2. Convene meetings of Committee Chairs immediately preceding and following the Annual and Midyear meetings to foster committee collaboration and communication with the BOD.

Functional Collective Terms for AAFCO Working Structure

Advisors – May be requested by the President to represent industry/trade and consumer groups on AAFCO committees (including subcommittees), task forces, or working groups. Following all nominations, the President, with the advice of the BOD, may accept representatives. The President may also choose to appoint other individuals. Generally, the President and BOD take into consideration the individual's demonstrated expertise on a given subject matter, their willingness to work with others in AAFCO, and their ability to facilitate the goals of the organization. These advisors will be called upon to answer questions relevant to animal nutrition, analytical expertise, industry practices, or other pertinent questions. The number of advisors is usually limited by the size of the committee. Committee advisors do not serve as members of an AAFCO committee, nor do they have a vote in committee level deliberations. Committee advisors serve as a voting member of work groups and task forces supporting the respective committee. Any advisor who behaves in a manner disruptive to committee business is subject to removal as an advisor to the committee by the AAFCO President.

Committees - May be established by the BOD. Members of Committees are appointed by the President, with the advice of the BOD. Committees may have regularly scheduled meetings at the Midyear and Annual meetings. Priorities and goals should be established at the Annual Meeting. These are to be submitted to the President-Elect after the Annual Meeting. Committees are composed of AAFCO members. Size of the committee may depend on both the duties of the committee and interest in participating in that committee's charges.

Coordinators - Are generally individuals, or small groups appointed by the President that serve in place of a standing committee when the role that needs to be filled is either very limited in scope or would function less effectively as a larger committee. (e.g., Feed Safety Coordinator)

Expert Panels – May be convened at any time, by a Committee, Task Force, or Investigator if deemed necessary to assist in the provision of advice. The terms of reference and duration of the panel shall be set out when the Panel is created. If the BOD has not expressly identified any experts in specific fields of expertise, then the Committee/Task Force/ Investigator is encouraged to make their own selection based on most knowledgeable persons that can be identified. The experts are not limited to academia but expert panelists should not have corporate financial interest for, or against, the proposal.

Investigators - Are generally individuals that serve in place of a committee within the limited scope of a category of ingredients for the purpose of coordinating the development or modification of Official Definitions and/or Terms used to describe the ingredients. Investigators are generally identified by the chair of the IDC for appointment by the President with the advice of the BOD and also serve as de facto members of the IDC.

Subcommittees - Are made up of committee members, and are “task/topic specific” (e.g., By-Laws Subcommittee of Strategic Affairs), used to divide responsibilities, or focus work, into more manageable groups of interest or expertise. Subcommittees do not generally have time restrictions imposed on their existence, and work tends to be a subset of the standing committee charge(s). Subcommittees may be created by a committee chair, as needed, to support committee function.

Task Forces - Are utilized to fulfill a need for “specific charges”, within a specific and limited time, both of which are established at the time of appointment. Task Forces are appointed by the President and serve at the discretion of the BOD. Membership of a Task Force focuses on expertise in the area to be addressed, and may include any individual needed to function within its charge (e.g., the Canine and Feline Nutritional Expert Task Force).

Working Groups - May include AAFCO Members, Advisors, Academia, or others, as needed to function within its charge. Working Groups are “task specific” and are appointed by a committee chair, coordinator, or investigator to address a specific issue. Working Groups have a limited life span and purpose, both of which should be addressed at the time of appointment. Working Groups (e.g., Sugar Working Group) serve at the discretion of the appointing individual.

Committee Guidelines

Committee chairs, members, and investigators should use the following criteria to determine if an issue or a proposed/suggested change needs to be addressed by this Association. The following criteria are applicable to all AAFCO investigators and committees if presented with an issue or change.

Does the issue or change affect:

1. Safeguarding the health of humans or animals?
2. The protection of consumer(s) and regulated industry?
3. The structure for orderly commerce?
4. The functions of the Association?

An issue or proposed change should meet at least one of these criteria to be considered by a committee/investigator. Committee chairs and their members determine whether an issue or proposed change meets the criteria. Committee chairs may seek guidance from the AAFCO Committee Coordinator (President-Elect) for issues that do not clearly meet any of the above criteria prior to determining whether the issue should be considered a committee/investigator project.

Justification must be provided with all proposals for consideration by a committee/investigator. Proposals should include the following:

1. The benefit of the proposal to humans and animals;
2. The benefit of the proposal to the consumer;
3. The benefit of the proposal to the regulated industry; and,
4. The benefit of the proposal to the Association

An amendment to AAFCO Model Bills and Regulations should only be made when it improves the clarity, design or intent of the statute or regulations, addresses a change in technology or enhances any of the criteria.

Committee resources are not intended to address industry competitive based marketing concerns.

Committee Definitions

Committee

A group of members and advisors officially delegated to administer, discuss, or make reports concerning a subject on which its members are authorities.

Chairperson is the presiding officer of a committee who ensures the committee is properly managed and functioning effectively.

Responsibilities

The chairperson's duties and responsibilities include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Ensure meetings are called and held in accordance with AAFCO's mandate, terms of reference and By-Laws.

- Establish and confirm an agenda for each meeting in consultation with committee members and advisors.
- Ensure the meeting agenda and relevant documents are circulated to the members and advisors in accordance with the timelines identified by AAFCO.
- Officiate and conduct meetings.
- Provide leadership and ensure committee members and advisors are aware of their obligations and the committee complies with its responsibilities.
- Ensure there is sufficient time during the meeting to fully discuss agenda items.
- Ensure that discussion on agenda items is on topic, productive and professional.
- Ensure committee reports are complete and accurate, reviewed and submitted in accordance with the timelines identified by AAFCO.

Vice Chairperson is a member of a committee immediately subordinate to the chairperson who assists the chairperson as required and serves as the chairperson in his/her absence or indisposition.

Co-Chairperson is one of two or more presiding members of a committee who share the responsibility for the proper management and effective functioning of a committee.

Spokesperson

An AAFCO investigator is the spokesperson for their particular area of expertise. Each committee, sub-committee, task force or working group should identify a spokesperson to handle inquiries from industry, media and the public. While the spokesperson may not always be the chair of that group, the person should be an AAFCO member. This individual is responsible for responding to all inquiries.

Additional Committee Meetings

Committees may request permission to hold meetings in addition to the Midyear and Annual meetings. These requests are to be submitted in writing to the BOD with justification for the meeting. Justification should include requested attendees and costs for the meeting.

General Operating Procedures

- AAFCO committees typically meet two times per year: at the midyear and annual meetings. Committee business may be conducted in many ways, not just via face-to-face meetings. Committees are encouraged to utilize the telephone/teleconference, webinar and e-mail systems to conduct business between formal meeting times. If additional committee meetings are necessary, the Chair may schedule meetings and/or conference calls.
- AAFCO is committed to providing a forum for respectful, professional discussion. All discussions should be professional and relevant to committee business. Any member or advisor who behaves in a manner disruptive to committee business may be subject to removal from the committee.
- Robert's Rules of Order may be used but are not required.

- Committee chairs may call open or closed meetings for the conduct of business.
- Closed meetings shall be of two types:
 1. Those at which advisory groups are requested to present the views of their associations; and,
 2. Those at which control officials only shall formulate recommendations for presentation to AAFCO.
- Chairs shall use discretion when inviting advisory groups to closed meetings. In general, invitations to make formal presentations at closed meetings shall be restricted to organizations that provide committee advisors to AAFCO.
- Individuals, associations, or groups interested in having their views presented at closed meetings shall submit a written request providing a description of the topic to be reviewed in advance of the closed committee meeting with the assurance that the committee will take such views into consideration.
- Even where issues are originally discussed in closed meetings, additional opportunities for discussion at (a) open committee meetings and/or (b) AAFCO general sessions will be provided for any committee recommendations to ensure that the operations of AAFCO are transparent and that stakeholders have the opportunity to provide comments.

Budget

If financial support is needed from the Association (e.g. additional meetings), a proposed budget (e.g. meeting venue and travel costs), meeting rationale, attendees and proposed agenda must be prepared and submitted to the Secretary-Treasurer and requires the approval of the President. Committees should identify any budget requests (revenue or expenses) for the next fiscal year in their midyear meeting committee report. The Budget Request Form should be used and can be obtained from the AAFCO website or AMF.

The Secretary-Treasurer will incorporate committee budget requests into the proposed Association budget for the BOD by May 1. The BOD will review, and finalize the budget by June 1. Once approved in the annual Association budget, most activities typically do not require further BOD approval. It is expected that the committee will work with the AMF as needed. The committee will report back to the BOD after the event.

Projects that will take two or more years to accomplish should be provided to the Finance Committee by March 1 with a business plan outlining:

- Overall budget of expected income and expenses;
- Executive summary detailing the purpose of the project, who is overseeing and participating in it and benefits to the AAFCO membership;
- Resources needed including monetary, grant requests, volunteer time, AMF support, software, etc.; and,
- Implementation plan that includes specific benchmarks and deliverables.

Conducting Meetings

Agenda Management

An agenda for each committee should be prepared by the chair prior to each meeting and sent to committee members and advisors in accordance with established timelines. The agenda for the midyear and annual meetings will be published on the AAFCO web site.

Agendas should include the following information:

1. The agenda topics (including a sentence or two that defines each item and why it is being discussed).
2. The presenters (usually the person who originated the item or the person most responsible or knowledgeable about it).
3. A time guideline (the estimated time in minutes needed to discuss each item).
4. The item type and whether the item requires discussion or decision or is just an announcement.

Start each meeting by reviewing the agenda, adding or deleting items, and modifying time estimates.

Establish Ground Rules

At the beginning of the committee meeting, the committee chair sets the ground rules for the meeting. This includes letting everyone know how comments will be received, e.g., comments only from committee members; time limit for comments; comments from other meeting attendees, etc. Motions should be made and accepted or rejected based upon the consensus of the majority of voting members present. Chairs are encouraged to be familiar with the fundamental guidance of Robert Rules of Order in conducting their committee business.

Record Meeting Deliberations

Designate an individual to record each item discussed, listing important discussion topics and final action or disposition.

Review Action Items

Review items on the Action Item List for follow-up activities (what? by whom? due date?).

Evaluate the Meeting

Determine if specific goals for meeting were met and how to improve.

Draft Committee Documents

All AAFCO documents developed by committees, sub-committees, task forces, working groups or investigators that are not completed should be marked with the word, "draft".

Draft documents are to be released publicly only with the permission of the applicable Chair. Members, advisors and other individuals assigned to participate in this Association's functions are permitted to share draft committee documents within their own organizations with the understanding that draft documents may not be publicly released without permission.

Committee Reporting

The Committee Report Template should be used and can be obtained from the AAFCO website or AMF. The report contains sections to document:

- Committee and BOD recommendations and Association actions at the top of the report;
- Dates and locations of meetings;
- Member and advisor participation;
- General information on discussions;
- Reports and actions taken by the committee including formalized motions; and,
- Follow up on action items.

Any designated appointed working structure group having been appointed by a committee chair, including any expert panel, any subcommittee, or any working group, must provide to the committee chair an update of their charge and progress made throughout the year, in electronic format, due at a time chosen by the committee chair, but. It is the responsibility of the appointed working structure to present a report to the chair whether or not specifically solicited by the chair.

AAFCO implements its vision under the direction of the BOD through the work of committees that provide recommendations to the Association. These recommendations should align with the vision and mission of the Association, the strategic plan and follow the appropriate procedures.

1. Committee Agendas: The Board liaison to the committee should monitor the development of the committee agenda for alignment with the Association policies and strategic plan in the Official Publication.
2. Committee Recommendations:
 - a. If a committee recommendation is in conflict with Association By-Laws or procedures the BOD may return the recommendation to the committee pointing out the conflicting policy.
 - b. If the BOD disagrees with the committee recommendation, they must pass it to Association membership for a vote. It is appropriate to attach a “Do not pass.” recommendation to the membership. The BOD must put an explanation of their “Do not pass” recommendation in the business meeting agenda.
3. Committees may pass recommendations among each other without BOD recommendations. (e.g. new label nutrient guarantee. Feed Labelling to Model Bill)

General Operating Procedures

Any AAFCO member may propose a change in the by-laws by submitting it in writing to the committee chair. Although not required, it is recommended that copies of the proposed changes be sent to the AAFCO President by the persons suggesting the changes.

Investigators

Purpose

An investigator is appointed by the President and BOD with the advice of the IDC chair for each category of feed ingredient to establish and maintain a current listing in the OP including the applicable classification, definition, and restrictions.

Investigators' goals are to:

- Develop official feed definitions and standards that are just and equitable in cooperation with the regulated industry producing it; and,
- Assure that the production, sale and use of ingredients will result in safe and effective feeds.

Tentative definitions remain in tentative status until official status is recommended by the investigator and/or the Ingredients Definitions Committee. Ingredient definitions may be challenged due to changes in manufacturing processes and facilities, causing product and regulation change.

General Operating Procedures

- Provide a focal point among members, FDA, regulated industry and stakeholders for uniformly defining feed ingredients and their use.
- Receive requests for amending or adding to the AAFCO listing of definitions.
- Receive initial definitions for new products from individuals, ingredient manufacturers, associations, regulatory agencies or the investigator.
- The investigator may initiate a definition modification based upon knowledge of the affected industry and not a on a specific request from a sponsor. It is the responsibility of the investigator to acquire sufficient documentation to support the action, in accordance with the Guide to Submitting Ingredient Definitions in the OP.
- Determine from the person making the request the purpose, need, safety, etc. of the product. Check with industry, other control officials, other investigators, governmental agencies and others that may have input regarding the topic.
- The investigator needs to adhere to the assessment steps detailed in the Guide to Submitting Ingredient Definitions in the OP.
- Define a specific ingredient as accurately as possible without incorporating product specifications.

- Investigator recommendations are considered only at IDC meetings.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES AND POLICIES

Procedures Manual Update - Form

Complete this form to propose and facilitate the process of updating any component of the AAFCO Procedures Manual. Search the Feed Bin for Procedures Manual Update Form to download the form. Requests should be made to the Strategic Affairs Committee.

Travel Procedures

AAFCO realizes the importance of having effective meetings requiring committee chairs, investigators, liaisons, members of the BOD and others to attend. However, sometimes members are unable to attend meetings without outside financial assistance because of a lack of available travel funds in their agency. AAFCO has a long tradition of assisting members attending meetings, to the extent possible, when it is in AAFCO's best interest .

A member should request funds for travel from AAFCO only if their agency is unable to provide funds for travel. The member should seek partial travel funds from their agency. Additionally, when requesting AAFCO travel funds, the member should minimize expenses.

A consultant or other party may request reimbursement of travel expenses when included in an approved and signed contract or agreement. This procedure must be followed unless specified in said contract or agreement. AAFCO will not reimburse expenses that would normally be or is paid by another party.

All travel authorization requests must be pre-approved.

Authorization Procedures

- Committee members must first submit their requests through their committee chair, who must approve the travel before forwarding the request to the DRAMF. The chair should justify the requests by explaining why the member's presence is in the best interest of AAFCO.
- All travel requests must be completed on the AAFCO Travel Authorization and Reimbursement Form (TARF) and submitted to the DRAMF well in advance of the meeting, preferably at least four to six weeks. The TARF can be obtained from the AAFCO website in the Member Toolkit or DRAMF.
- The Secretary-Treasurer (ST) and Executive Director (ED) are responsible for approving all travel requests. They may consult with the BOD as necessary or advisable. In the case of the ST or ED's travel, the President and/or President-Elect is responsible for approval.
- The DRAMF promptly notifies the applicant and the committee chair (if appropriate) if they were approved which must be obtained prior to travel.
- If needed, travel advances may be available upon request prior to booking and subject to approval. Advances will only cover a maximum of 80% of the lodging and travel. Legible and complete documentation of lodging and airfare estimates must be provided along with the request.

- All requests shall be approved, revised or denied within five business days.

Allowances and Receipts

- Legible, complete, and dated receipts are required.
- All expenses must be the most economical option available.
- When reimbursements must be paid to the requestor's employer instead of directly to the requestor, AAFCO will reimburse according to their employer's travel reimbursement policies as much as possible. Otherwise, the AAFCO procedure is followed.
- If personal preference is chosen for any travel expense over the most economic (e.g., personal vehicle chosen over airfare, rental car over personal vehicle), legible and complete estimates must be provided along with the request. The least expensive option will be reimbursed unless justification is provided and pre-approved.
- Registration fees, lodging, airfare, ground transportation (taxi, rideshare, subway, bus, rental car, etc.), parking, tolls and any other acceptable or justifiable expense will be reimbursed on an actual-cost basis.
- Meals and incidentals will be reimbursed at the current U.S. federal per diem rate of meeting location.
- Automobile travel will be reimbursed at the current U.S. federal mileage rate. The claim should show origin and destination points and total mileage.
- In rare cases when a rate (per diem, mileage, etc.) change occurs during the requestor's travel days, the higher rate will be reimbursed.

Travel Reimbursement Claims

- A properly completed TARF must be submitted to the DRAMF, along with all appropriate receipts as previously outlined. The TARF can be obtained from the AAFCO website or DRAMF.
- All requests for reimbursement must be made within 20 business days of travel completion. If the request cannot be filed by then, the requestor may seek in writing, an extension from the ST or ED.
- The DRAMF shall check the completed Form and receipts and compare it to the travel request to ensure accuracy and appropriateness within five business days. The ST and ED shall review for approval within five business days.
- The DRAMF shall promptly issue a payment to the requestor to reimburse the approved travel expenses within five business days.
- If the requestor received an advance and a refund is due to AAFCO, the member shall promptly reimburse the Association within five business days.
- The DRAMF shall retain a copy of the approved TARF.

Honorariums Policy

Honorariums may be awarded to deserving individuals, with the formal approval of the BOD. A member of the Association or a BOD member may make the recommendation. The recommendation should be accompanied by written justification along with a suggested amount.

Items to be considered in selecting honorariums:

- Will the AAFCO member continue the services provided to the organization if a monetary reward is not received?
- Will AAFCO receive the quality of services from a nonmember if the services are contracted out?
- Can AAFCO obtain through contract the amount and quality of services from an outside source at the same or less value?
- Did the individual provide a service above and beyond regular member involvement, that otherwise may have been costly to the Association?

It should be noted that many associations employ staff due to the fact that no member is willing to accept the responsibilities necessary to maintain a profitable and informative service organization.

Individuals who historically receive honorariums are those who provide the Association with operational activities; items not connected with committee or task force assignments. Such activities must occur in order for the committees, task forces, investigators and the BOD to operate.

An honorarium may be awarded to any individual who has provided an outstanding service to the Association.

Compliance

Failure on the part of employees to follow this policy can result in possible civil and criminal sanctions against AAFCO and its members and possible disciplinary action against responsible individuals. The President and Secretary-Treasurer will annually review these procedures with legal counsel or the organization’s certified public accountant to ensure that they are in compliance with new or revised regulations.

This policy was adopted at the AAFCO Board meeting held July 30, 2010, in Portland OR, updated and approved on December 5, 2013 and again September 7, 2016. It will remain in effect as a permanent policy of the Board until amended or removed by Board action.
